Mary Pickford in "Rebecca of Sunny "One Shot Ross"-Two Exceptional range. Y. M. C. A. Canvassers.

In direct contrast to her more re In direct contrast to her more recent characterizations of powerful dramatic qualities, Mary Pickford's next screen portrayal is none other than that of the popular little figure in American literature, Rebecca of Sunnybook Farm. During the past year "Our Mary" has received countless requests for her appearance in this famous subject and her picturization of quaint little Rebecca is in direct compliance with popular demand. rect compliance with popular demand, and will be shown at the Davis theatre and will be shown at the Davis theatre today, in six beautiful parts.

Mary Pickford's presentation of The Poor Little Rich Girl will live long in the hearts of the Davis patrons. However, even greater than The Poor Little Rich Girl is Rebecca, who has become a favorite national character: established not only in this, but in oth-established not only in this, but in other countries as well.

On the stase Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm immediately took hold of the hearts of the play-going public and effected another triumph for the spokenen drama. With Mary Pickford in the title role of its screen presentation, of-fering the wide scope of the motion picture, however, this subject will meet olth even far greater favor than ever

The other feature on this bill is Roy Stewart, in One Shot Ross, a 5-part Triangle western drama with all the thrills and excitement that has made Triangle pictures so popular at theatre. To complete the show is a farmy comedy called Their BREED THEATRE.

Alice Jovce and Harry Morey in "Her Secret," a Powerful Photoplay Showing How Fate Avenged a Woman Wronged, Feature For Today and

How to repay for our sins is strongby portraged in Her Secret, a thrilling story of what some call Fate, others speak of it as Nature's Law of Compensation, but what few if any, dare deny, is some power, some allseeing force that pays us back measure for measure for the sins we do.
It shows how one man harvested in the very sanctity of his home the seeds of the sin he had sowed fears before. And how did he pay? Fate did not ask for his life, nor did he suffer torments of flesh, nor was his wealth taken from flesh, nor was his wealth taken from The answer-Fate's Challenge comes with an overwhelming force of an avalanche in the tremendous cimax of Her Secret, which is the fea-ture attraction at the Breed today and esday. Alice Joyce and Harry rey are cast in the leading roles o this forceful photodrama and are supported by a cast of well chosen Vita-graph favorites.

Other pictures on the bill include Pearl White in The Fatal Ring, and the Hearst-Pathe Weekly.

ess, the newest Wold-Picture Brady-Made. The film fans of this city will have the opportunity of endorsing this verdict on Monday and Tuesday, as upon that date, The Little Dutchess will be the splendid attraction at the Auditorium theatre.

The Honor System, by Henry Christeen Warmack, is a thrilling epic of the law's delays and crueities, exposing with terrific realism, yet artistic sincerity, the horrors too often meted out to society's unfortunates. This is a great production and will start a four day run at the Auditorium on Wednesday, November 21.

And stolc calm is to the four winds flung. How go about small things, one's being set, Through life's routine, to that titanic When you, beloved of many hearts, are met
Where, noon to midnight, midnight back to noon,
The big guns thunder on the Flanders front!

sees you mantled in cascading fiame, In that terrific urge where rivers lap ite blood freely shed to sign the The life name
Of holy freedom ever on the map.
Splendor of life proclaimed in every breath,
With years of your youth's heyday
still to run.
Your deathless victory spells bartered death For mound recaptured, mile of frontage won Where big guns thunder on the Flan-ders front!

So, be the mourning badge for you who fall
Our service flag, white-started upon the breast;
Our sons, the final courage that you tall
When Heaven puts you to the final test. when Heaven puts you to the final test.
Unmarked, your graves make consecrated ground
Of blood-soaked land where new war's demon shricks,
For there white peace shall be anointed crowned.
And there the certain voice of godhead speaks—
Where hig guns thunder on the Flanders front!

The car with coal-gas as a motive power seems to be coming; it has been well and successfully tested in the warm summer days. But, remember the chill of winter! No gas manper the chil of winter No gas man-ufacturer has yet succeeded in climi-nating naphthaline; it is always present. Under the influence of cold, gas contracts and precipitates its napthaline in main and smaller pipes. The substance builds up in crystal form and effects a stoppage. Men with force-pumps come round and blow out the choked pipes in our houses. How will the little inlet pipe of the motor engine fare when naphthaline dams it tight?
